

Health and Social Protection

Our contribution to the Sustainable Development Goals committed to health and social protection

Thanks to projects funded in 2023

Target 3.8

31 million people will have better access to care Target 1.3

La million people will benefit from better social protection Target 3.d 21 countries supported in the strengthening of their health surveillance systems to promote sexual and reproductive health and rights

Target 2.2 €160 M to tackle malnutrition

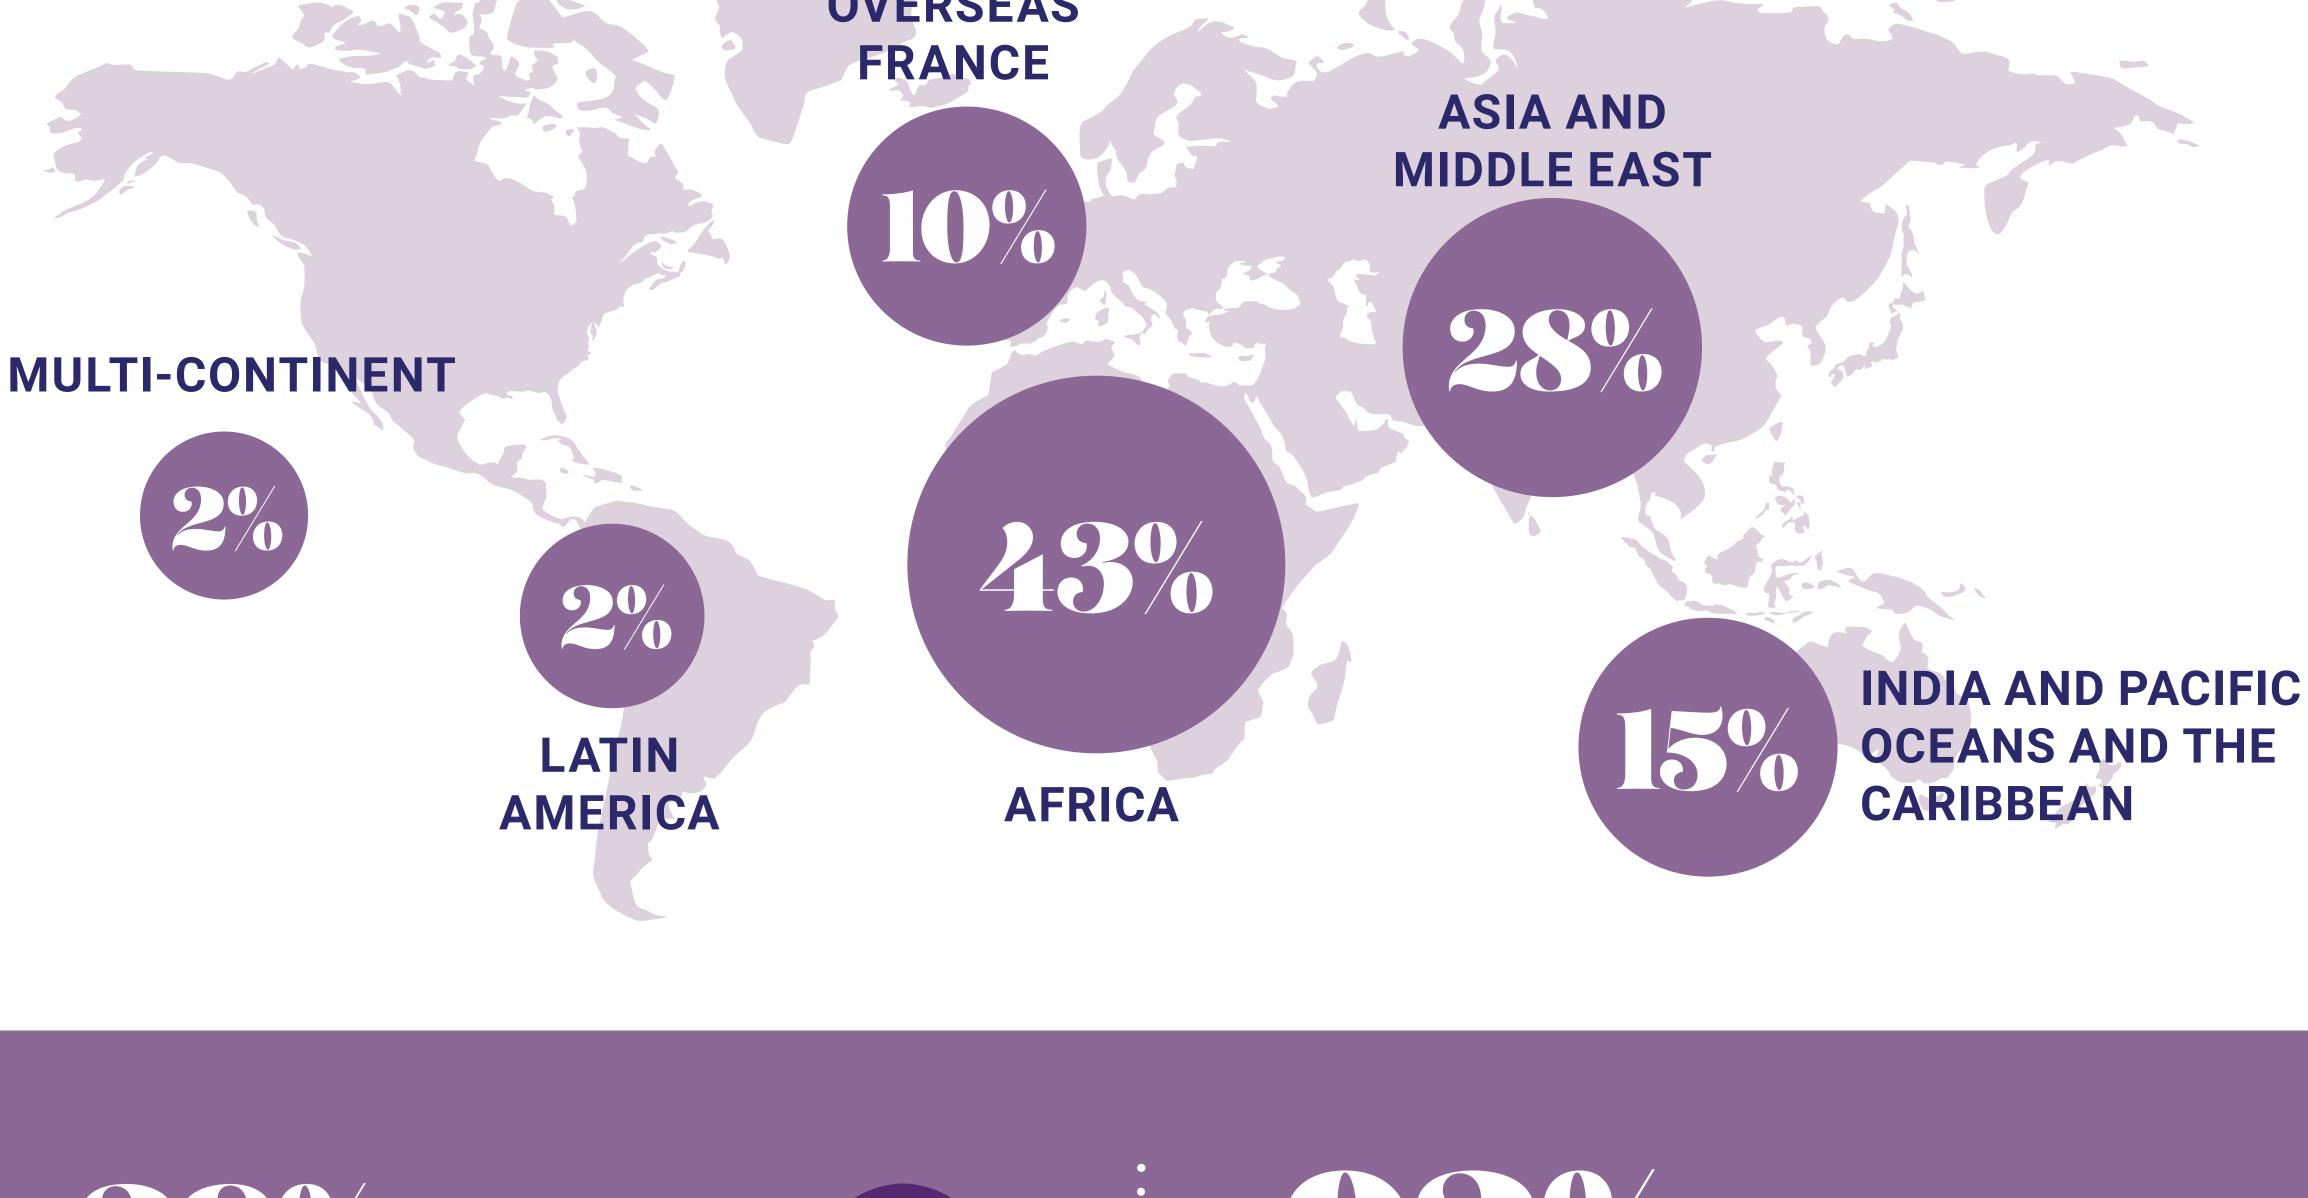

Target 5.2 & 5.6

€66M

worldwide

OVERSEAS FRANCE

Breakdown of our commitments

70 new projects funded, including: and inter-network cooperation to strengthen health surveillance in the Indo-Pacific region

contributes to climate change adaptation

and mitigation

of funding

Support for regional health surveillance networks of funding has a

gender equality

positive impact on

€15 M in grants

for health to address the shortage of medical and paramedical personnel €36.5 M in C2D (Debt-Reduction Development Contract)

Addressing gender inequalities and climate challenges

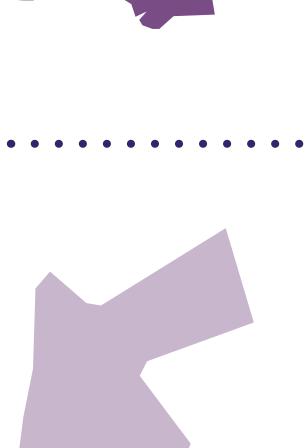

Backing the national policy for human resources in partnership with the Gates Foundation $55 M in sovereign loan, including $20 M by the Gates Foundation

£10 M in grants

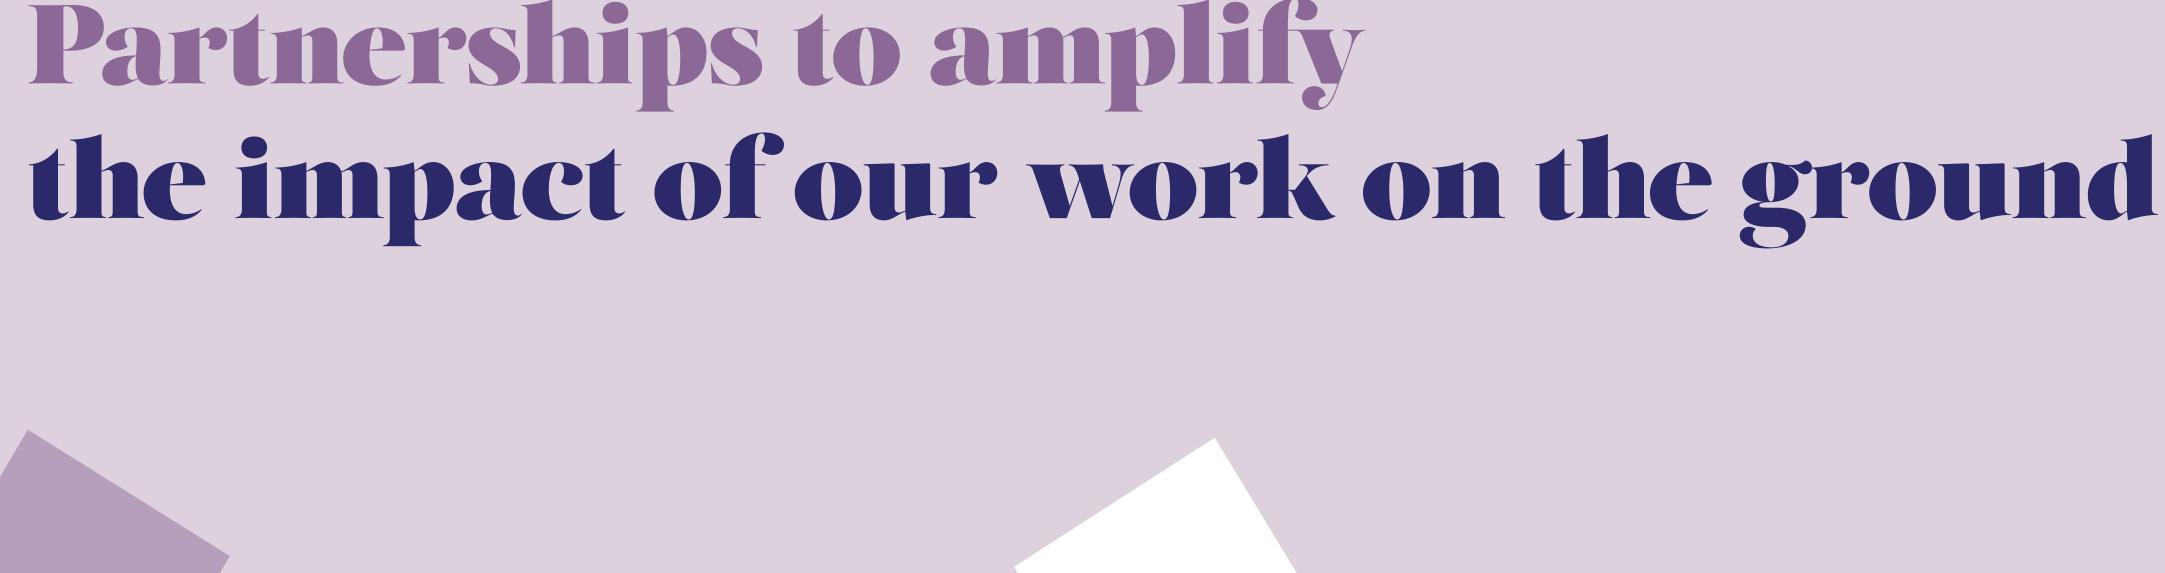

Pakistan

Côte d'Ivoire

Jordan Mobilizing Expertise France to promote inclusive social services for the Jordan population and refugees to improve the resilience of the health system

European Union

to develop coordinated

and co-funded actions

to establish a common investment agenda for health and climate

as part of a "Team Europe" approach Gates Foundation Development banks

to promote gender equality and human development

Contributing to the conversation

Co-organizer of the first : Organizer of a panel on "One Sustainable Health sexual and reproductive for All" Forum, health and rights at the Women Deliver 2023 on the health, climate and social protection Conference

Attended the

World Hospital

Congress

(by International

Hospital Federation)

Lyon 5-7 July 2023

Kigali

17-20 July 2023